

Contents

Note on Contributors	04
Editorial Note	06
Mustafa Feiruz
The State and its Fragments: Debates on Kinship and the State in Somalia
Ahmed Sh. Ibrahim	08
Turkish Model in Somalia: Civilian Power Approach in State Building Process
Salad Sheikh Yusuf Addow	31
Somali Region in Ethiopia: Historical Developments during the Period 1884-1995
Abdirahman A. Muhumed & Mohamed A. Siraj	60
“Of Warlords and Wordsmiths”: Journeying the Somali Civil War Through Selected Somali Poetry
Helmi Ben Meriem	76
Oblique Marking System in Somali Language: Comparison of the Common Somali and Karre Dialect
Abdirachid Mohamed Ismail	96
Toosinta iyo Casriyaynta Haybta Shakhsiga Soomaaliyeed
Cabdalla Cumar Mansuur	125
Awaaltiris (Tix-Poem)
Maxamed Ibraahim Warsame “Hadraawi”	141
Guur an ka La'aado (Tix-Poem)
Xalwo Bulxan Cali	152
Darajiyo Xil Yaa Mudan? (Tix-Poem)
Cabdi Yuusuf Xasan “Cabdi-Dhuux”	158

Note on Contributors

Ahmed Sh. Ibrahim is a PhD candidate in cultural anthropology at the Graduate Center, City University of New York. He is also a postdoctoral fellow at Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota. Ahmed's dissertation research is a historical ethnography of the Union of Islamic Courts based on 20 months of research in Mogadishu, Somalia. Ahmed Ibrahim can be reached at ahmedf95@gmail.com

Salad Sheikh Yusuf Addow is the founder & director of Somali Youth Research Society in Mogadishu, Somalia. He has MA in International Relations, Sakarya University in Turkey. He has written papers and participated in number of workshops and conferences in state building process in Somalia. His research interests lie in international relations & foreign policy analysis, and Somalia state building.

Abdirahman A. Muhumed is a lecturer at Jigjiga University's Sociology department. He earned his BA in Sociology from Jigjiga University, Ethiopia and MA in Social Structure and Social Change from Istanbul University, Turkey. His area of research interests include Horn of African affairs, Somali studies, globalization, political economy and economic sociology.

Mohamed A. Siraj is a Graduate of Psychological guidance and counseling in Zirve University, Gaziantep Turkey. His main research interests include Psychology, Political history, Comparative Writing and Satire.

Helmi Ben Meriem is a researcher of Somali literature at the University of Sousse, Tunisia, where he is finishing his PhD dissertation. He has published several academic papers. He is also a fiction writer.

Abdirachid Mohamed Ismail, PhD, is a senior lecturer in Linguistics at the University of Djibouti where he teaches general linguistics and Somali linguistics. He is one of the key members of the Intergovernmental Academy of Somali Language. He is also currently the Vice President of the Institut de Recherche Indépendant de la Corne de l'Afrique (IRICA). Abdirachid can be reached at mail: abdirachid_mohamed_ismail@yahoo.fr

Cabdalla Cumar Mansuur, a Professor of Arabic and Somali languages at the Università Roma Tre since 1997. He is also a researcher at the Centro Studi Somali (Università Roma Tre). He taught linguistics at Somali National University (1976-1990). He has published and co-published several books including “Taariikhda Afka iyo Bulshada Soomaaliyeed” (2016, 2nd ed.)’ “Qaamuuska Af Soomaaliga” (2012), co-editor with Professor Annarita Puglielli; “Afafka Bahda Kushitigga iyo Taariikhda Af Soomaaliga” (1981). He also published several articles and delivered papers on Somali language, history and culture in different occasions and conferences. He is a member of several research institutions and an advisor to several academic journals.

Maxamed Ibraahim Warsame, aka Hadraawi, is a prominent Somali poet, songwriter and educator. His poems reflect on aspects of life such as love, social ills, and politics particularly the agony of dictatorship. The first collection of his poems in 1970-1990 “Hal-Karaan” is printed in 1993. He was awarded the Prince Claus Award in 2012. He graduated from faculty of education (Lafuole) of Somali National University.

Xalwo Bulxan Cali is one of the youth poets. She was the recipient of the first rank Somali Poetry Competition held in Nairobi, Kenya in 2011.

Cabdi Yuusuf Xasan, aka Cabdi-Dhuux, is a prominent Somali folklore dancer and songwriter, currently he is the director of Somali National Theatre in Mogadishu, Somalia.